

WUSF Public Media

Florida Matters Public Affairs Show

University Beat

News Stories

Jan. 1 – March 31, 2019

UNIVERSITY BEAT FIRST QUARTER 2019

University Beat reports run on WUSF 89.7 FM every Wednesday at approximately 6:44 am, 8:44 am and 5:44 pm.

It also runs on WSMR 89.1 & 103.9 FM the following Monday at about 10:25 pm. Each report is between three and a half to four and a half minutes in length.

USF, Tampa Bay Area React To President Currall (Mar 27, 2019) When Steven Currall takes over for the retiring Judy Genshaft as president of the University of South Florida in July, he'll be stepping into a school in transition. (Higher Education)

How USF Landed Steven Currall As President (Mar 25, 2019) Later this week, the Florida Board of Governors will meet to approve Steven Currall as the president of the University of South Florida. The USF Board of Trustees selected Currall to serve as the school's seventh president in a unanimous vote Friday. (Higher Education)

USF St. Petersburg Professor Explores Post-Civil War Environmental Changes (Mar 13, 2019) Burned fields. Cut down trees. Obliterated fencing. Thousands upon thousands of muddy tracks from foot traffic. A small-scale drought. Those were just some of the changes that affected the rural South's landscape post-Civil War. (History, Education)

'Mom-preneur' Creates A Perfect Fit In Girls Shoes (Feb 27, 2019) The proverb "necessity is the mother of invention" is especially true in the case of Colette Glover-Hannah. The latest entry into University Beat's series on entrepreneurs with ties to the University of South Florida – in this case, a self-proclaimed "momprenneur" – came up with the idea of her company, (Minorities, Business, Education)

'Public Health Knows No Borders' - Symposium Looks At Security, Infectious Disease (Feb 20, 2019) With Florida being an international travel destination, there could be a risk for infectious diseases from foreign countries. And the risk of bioterrorism remains a possibility as well. These and other topics will be the focus as the University of South Florida hosts the first ever Global Health, Diplomacy and National Security Symposium Feb. 28 in Tampa. (Health, Global Security, Education)

USF Produces More Fulbright Scholars Than Any Other U.S. University (Feb 19, 2019) The University of South Florida is the 2018-19 top producer of Fulbright Scholars with 12 recipients, according to the Chronicle of Higher Education. The accomplishment places the institution among top research schools like Michigan State University, UCLA, and Notre Dame. (Higher Education)

Florida Orchestra To Premiere USF Professor's Original Piece (Feb 14, 2019) A University of South Florida music composition professor's latest work is getting a high-profile debut this week at the hands of the Florida Orchestra. Baljinder Sekhon's "Stars" will open a trio of Masterworks Series concerts that also feature Holst's "The Planets" and Debussy's "Nocturnes." (Music, Education)

UMBC's Freeman Hrabowski To Speak About Education Diversity (Feb 6, 2019) During his 27-year tenure as president of the University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC), Freeman Hrabowski III has helped convert the school into one that's recognized for its success in research and instruction. In particular, UMBC been noted in helping students from diverse backgrounds graduate and find careers. (Minorities, Higher Education)

USF Entrepreneur Turns Family Dream Into 'Yummi' Business (Jan 30, 2019) When Adriana Florez's family came to the U.S. from Colombia a little over a decade ago, each family member was only allowed to bring two bags. The night before they set off, she caught her mother packing an empanada maker. (Minorities, Business, Education)

USF Health Welcomes Former Pasteur Institute President (Jan 23, 2019) USF Health is continuing to strengthen its offerings in both research and treatment of diseases by recruiting high-profile scientists and physicians from around the world. One of their latest additions is Dr. Christian Bréchet, the former president of France's renowned Pasteur Institute. (Foreign Affairs, Medicine, Higher Education)

USF St. Petersburg Striving To Reduce Carbon Footprint (Jan 15, 2019) As USF St. Petersburg works to set new sustainability standards, the campus continues to implement eco-friendly projects. In 2016, USFSP adopted a Climate Action Plan and pledged to achieve two goals: to reduce its baseline greenhouse gas emissions by 50 percent by 2035 and to achieve carbon neutrality by 2050. (Climate Change, Education)

USF Honors Students Share Class With Children In Japan (Jan 9, 2019) On a Monday night at the University of South Florida, 14 honors students and their professor filled a conference room in the school's John and Grace Allen building. Their days were almost over, but for the other students who were about to join them, theirs were just beginning. (World Affairs, Education)

The Nose May Know When It Comes To Food Choice (Jan 3, 2019) If your New Year's resolution is cutting down on sweets and other foods that aren't good for you – you may want to follow your nose. (Food, Medicine, Health, Education)

FLORIDA MATTERS – FIRST QUARTER, 2019

Florida Matters Quarterly report Jan. 1-March 31, 2019

Time aired: Tuesdays at 6:30 – 7 p.m. and Sundays at 7:30 – 8 a.m. on WUSF 89.7 FM;
Monday at 10 – 10:30 p.m. on WSMR 89.1 FM

Florida's Legislative Session So Far: Medical Marijuana, Water Quality, Amendment 4 And More (Mar 26, 2019) Florida's legislative session has been underway for almost a month and there have already been some big changes. We talk with reporters about key issues lawmakers are considering and how their actions could affect our lives on this week's Florida Matters. (Politics, Health, Environment, Public Safety, Education)

The Changing Seafood Industry In Florida (Mar 19, 2019) Historians and local old-timers say that once, Tampa Bay was overflowing with delicious oysters. And that some rivers, like the Manatee River, were once so full of mullet that they roiled the water and their noise would keep nearby residents awake at night. (History, Environment, Food, Government)

The Latest In Florida Tourism: Red Tide, A 'Sports Coast' And Theme Park Expansions (Mar 12, 2019) Tourism is a vital industry for our state, and Florida Matters is taking a look at how businesses fared in the wake of red tide, what's new with our theme parks, and where tourism is heading after another record-breaking year. (Tourism, Business, Government)

DeSantis To Lawmakers: Be Bold On Big Issues (Mar 5, 2019) Republican Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis gave an anti-tax, pro-environment State of the State address Tuesday, asking lawmakers to be bold as they tackle issues like education, school safety and health care. (Government, Environment, Public Safety, Health, Politics)

Fighting Human Trafficking In Florida (Feb 26, 2019) Florida ranks third in the nation for the number of calls placed to the national human trafficking hotline. The charges filed against New England Patriots owner Robert Kraft last week for soliciting prostitution in Jupiter have again put a spotlight on sex trafficking in our state. (Human Trafficking, Public Safety)

International Dining In Tampa Bay (Feb 19, 2019) These are exciting times for eating out in Tampa Bay. Our cuisine is getting better and more varied and starting to draw national attention. (Food, Business)

Telling Tampa Bay Stories: Plant City Part 2 (Feb 12, 2019) The Florida Strawberry Festival in Plant City starts Feb. 28. With the festival just a couple of weeks away, Florida Matters is taking another listen to stories from our 2018 special series "Telling Tampa Bay Stories: Plant City." (Minorities, History)

Growth In Florida And How To Manage It (Feb 5, 2019 ) Growth is no stranger to Florida. The state is a magnet for snowbirds, immigrants and sun-seekers. But will too much growth crowd out what people come here for to begin with? (Environment, Growth, Water issues, Politics)

Telling Tampa Bay Stories: Plant City Part 1 (Jan 29, 2019) In 2017, our series, "Telling Tampa Bay Stories," took us to Tampa's Progress Village. In 2018, the focus turned to Plant City -- a Hillsborough County community where agriculture and development, history and progress all meet. (Minorities, Growth, Agriculture)

The History Of Gasparilla And Its 'Mystic' Pirates (Jan 22, 2019) The annual Gasparilla celebration is one of Tampa Bay's biggest social events, drawing in hundreds of thousands of people to dress up as pirates and eat, drink and be merry. Though people dressing up in costumes and "invading" the city may seem like silly fun, the tradition has also played an important role in Tampa's high society. (History, Tourism)

Political Roundtable: Gov. DeSantis' Actions So Far, Tampa Mayoral Race Gets Crowded & More (Jan 15, 2019) Florida's new governor Ron DeSantis has wasted no time in putting his stamp on the state. This week on Florida Matters we take a look at some of his actions so far and talk with journalists about other political happenings like the upcoming mayoral race in Tampa. (Politics, Environment, Health, Tourism, Public Safety)

Is The Keto Diet Right For You? (Jan 8, 2019) Look up "keto cookbooks" and you find a plethora of options: Quick and Easy Ketogenic Cooking, Southern Keto, Ketogenic Cleanse, Keto Comfort Foods... it's fair to say this is a diet craze. But does it really work? (Food, Health)

Looking Back At WUSF In 2018 (Jan 1, 2019) It's 2019. As WUSF prepares to bring you the news you rely on this year, we're looking back at some of the station's big moments in 2018 through the lens of Florida Matters. (Health Care, Environment, Arts, Veterans Issues, Minorities, Government, Business)

Quarterly Issues Report

WUSF News Stories Jan. 1 – March 31, 2019

(See Attached Excel Files)

Florida's Legislative Session So Far: Medical Marijuana, Water Quality, Amendment 4 And More (Mar 26, 2019) Florida's legislative session has been underway for almost a month and there have already been some big changes. We talk with reporters about key issues lawmakers are considering and how their actions could affect our lives on this week's Florida Matters. (Politics, Health, Environment, Public Safety, Education)

The Changing Seafood Industry In Florida (Mar 19, 2019) Historians and local old-timers say that once, Tampa Bay was overflowing with delicious oysters. And that some rivers, like the Manatee River, were once so full of mullet that they roiled the water and their noise would keep nearby residents awake at night. (History, Environment, Food, Government)

The Latest In Florida Tourism: Red Tide, A 'Sports Coast' And Theme Park Expansions (Mar 12, 2019) Tourism is a vital industry for our state, and Florida Matters is taking a look at how businesses fared in the wake of red tide, what's new with our theme parks, and where tourism is heading after another record-breaking year. (Tourism, Business, Government)

DeSantis To Lawmakers: Be Bold On Big Issues (Mar 5, 2019) Republican Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis gave an anti-tax, pro-environment State of the State address Tuesday, asking lawmakers to be bold as they tackle issues like education, school safety and health care. (Government, Environment, Public Safety, Health, Politics)

Fighting Human Trafficking In Florida (Feb 26, 2019) Florida ranks third in the nation for the number of calls placed to the national human trafficking hotline. The charges filed against New England Patriots owner Robert Kraft last week for soliciting prostitution in Jupiter have again put a spotlight on sex trafficking in our state. (Human Trafficking, Public Safety)

International Dining In Tampa Bay (Feb 19, 2019) These are exciting times for eating out in Tampa Bay. Our cuisine is getting better and more varied and starting to draw national attention. (Food, Business)

Telling Tampa Bay Stories: Plant City Part 2 (Feb 12, 2019) The Florida Strawberry Festival in Plant City starts Feb. 28. With the festival just a couple of weeks away, Florida Matters is taking another listen to stories from our 2018 special series "Telling Tampa Bay Stories: Plant City." (Minorities, History)

Growth In Florida And How To Manage It (Feb 5, 2019 ) Growth is no stranger to Florida. The state is a magnet for snowbirds, immigrants and sun-seekers. But will too much growth crowd out what people come here for to begin with? (Environment, Growth, Water issues, Politics)

Telling Tampa Bay Stories: Plant City Part 1 (Jan 29, 2019) In 2017, our series, "Telling Tampa Bay Stories," took us to Tampa's Progress Village. In 2018, the focus turned to Plant City -- a Hillsborough County community where agriculture and development, history and progress all meet. (Minorities, Growth, Agriculture)

The History Of Gasparilla And Its 'Mystic' Pirates (Jan 22, 2019) The annual Gasparilla celebration is one of Tampa Bay's biggest social events, drawing in hundreds of thousands of people to dress up as pirates and eat, drink and be merry. Though people dressing up in costumes and "invading" the city may seem like silly fun, the tradition has also played an important role in Tampa's high society. (History, Tourism)

Political Roundtable: Gov. DeSantis' Actions So Far, Tampa Mayoral Race Gets Crowded & More (Jan 15, 2019) Florida's new governor Ron DeSantis has wasted no time in putting his stamp on the state. This week on Florida Matters we take a look at some of his actions so far and talk with journalists about other political happenings like the upcoming mayoral race in Tampa. (Politics, Environment, Health, Tourism, Public Safety)

Is The Keto Diet Right For You? (Jan 8, 2019) Look up "keto cookbooks" and you find a plethora of options: Quick and Easy Ketogenic Cooking, Southern Keto, Ketogenic Cleanse, Keto Comfort Foods... it's fair to say this is a diet craze. But does it really work? (Food, Health)

Looking Back At WUSF In 2018 (Jan 1, 2019) It's 2019. As WUSF prepares to bring you the news you rely on this year, we're looking back at some of the station's big moments in 2018 through the lens of Florida Matters. (Health Care, Environment, Arts, Veterans Issues, Minorities, Government, Business)